Mr. Martin Lu, Chairman
Edmund A. Walsh Lecture Committee

Dear Mr. Lu:

Thank you very much for your kind letter of 25 March concerning the talk that I gave before the Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service.

Your generous comments are particularly gratifying and I greatly appreciate your thoughtfulness in writing to me as you did. I might say that it was a real pleasure for me to join you on this occasion.

With kindest regards.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

On behalf of Georgetown University and the Edmund A. Walsh Lecture Committee, I would like to express my personal thanks and gratitude to you for the splendid lecture you delivered at our school last Wednesday evening.

As I told you that evening, never in the four years of our lecture series has a speaker drawn such a vast and attentive standing room only audience. This I believe, expresses Georgetown's admiration and tribute to you, personally, and to your outstanding organization.

We deeply appreciate the time and attention you took in preparing for this lecture, even in the midst of your very heavy schedule. I am sure that the student body obtained a clearer understanding of the problems and threats facing us through atheistic communism.

Many many thanks again to you.

Respectfully yours:

MARTIN LU, Chairman
Edmund A. Walsh Lecture Committee
